Our Notice of Privacy Practices provides information about how we use and disclose protected health information about you. You have the right to review our notice before signing this consent. As outlined in our notice, the terms of our notice may change. If our notice is changed or modified, you may retain a revised copy by request from the receptionist. You have the right to request that we restrict how protected health information about you is used or disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are not required to agree to this restriction, but if we do, we are bound by our agreement.

By signing this form, you consent to our use and disclosure of protected health information about you for treatment, payment, and health care operations. You have the right to revoke this consent, in writing, except where we have already made disclosures in reliance on your prior consent. This consent is given freely with the understanding that:

- 1. Any and all records, whether written or oral or in electronic format, are confidential and cannot be disclosed without my written authorization, except as otherwise provided by law.
- 2. A photocopy or fax of this consent is as valid as the original.
- 3. I may revoke this consent at any time, except where information has already been released. This consent is valid until revoked by me in writing.

OFFICE POLICIES

1. We understand that delays can happen, however we ask all our patients to be on time so that we can stay on schedule and minimize patient inconvenience. Please call the office if you are running behind.
  - $15 Rescheduling Fee- If you are 15 minutes past your scheduled time, we may need to reschedule your appointment and there will be a $15 fee. Sonogram appointments are scheduled every 15 minutes, if you are late, it will delay your original appointment time.
  - $25 Cancellation Fee- If you No Show or Cancel an appointment without giving a 24-hour notice, there will be a $25 fee.

**Please note, cancellation and rescheduling fees are not billable to insurance****
2. For the safety of our patients and their children, no children will be permitted in the sonogram rooms unless restrained in a stroller or attended to by another adult. Children may not be left unattended in the waiting room. Our office staff cannot be responsible for supervising children.
3. Phone calls are returned within 24 hours. If you are experiencing symptoms of concern please alert any member of our team, a nurse will call back as soon as possible during the business day.
4. Dallas IVF offers a discount of 15% for military, service personnel, and teachers. The discount only applies to the infertility procedure itself and not diagnostic exams or in treatment ultrasounds and labs. You are eligible for the discount if you or your partner is a member of the military, a veteran, a police officer, a firefighter, an EMT, or a teacher. We are unable to apply discounts to claims submitted through insurance, so the discount is only applied if you are self-pay for your procedure with Dallas IVF. This discount excludes the following services; embryo biopsy, PGT testing, cryopreservation, and anesthesia fees.
5. It is the patient's responsibility to know their insurance coverage. Your insurance policy is a contract between you and the issuer of your insurance policy. Therefore, you as the policy holder not Dallas IVF is responsible for knowing your insurance benefits, i.e. what is covered, what is not covered, if there are prerequisites for coverage, if a pre-authorization is required, etc. To avoid any misunderstanding, you are encouraged to discuss fees and benefits with your insurance company prior to treatment.
6. If your insurance plan requires you to have a referral from your PCP, it is your responsibility to ensure that the authorization process is completed prior to your initial visit. If no referral is on file, then you will be responsible for the self-pay rates.
7. If you request for our office to file a claim to a 3rd party payer (insurance carrier) on your behalf, please be advised that it may take 30-60 days to receive approval/denial from your insurance company after claims have been processed. You will be responsible for paying all costs that are not paid by your insurance carrier. If you do not have infertility treatment coverage, then you will always have the right to pay our self-pay rates and not file with your insurance. If we receive a denial from your insurance company, we will inform you upon your next visit and convert to self-pay at that time.
8. If you do not present our office with an insurance card at the time of service, you will be charged as a private pay patient. A receipt can be provided so that you can file the claim for reimbursement from your insurance.
9. Dallas IVF uses LabCorp as the preferred provider for all pathology services, if LabCorp is not listed by your insurance as a preferred/covered provider, reduced self-pay options will be provided. Patients may also go to an outside lab of their choice with a requisition from Dallas IVF.
10. If you require additional copies of your medical records, there will be a processing fee of $25.00.

HIPAA Omnibus Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective Date: September 23, 2013

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact our Privacy Officer

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we and our Business Associates may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment or healthcare operations (TPO) and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your PHI. PHI is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you and that relates to your past, present and future physical condition and related health care services. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of, and provide individuals with, this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI. We are also required to abide by the terms of the notice currently in effect.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI):

Your PHI may be used and disclosed by your physician, our office staff and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, to pay your health care bills, to support the operation of the physician’s practice, and any other use required by law.

For Treatment. We may use and disclose PHI for your treatment and to provide you with treatment-related health care services. For example, we may disclose Health Information to doctors, nurses, technicians, or other personnel, including people outside our office, who are involved in your medical care and need the information to provide you with medical care.

For Payment. We may use and disclose PHI so that we or others may bill and receive payment from you, an insurance company or a third party for the treatment and services you received. For example, we may give your health plan information about you so that they will pay for your treatment.

For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support the business activities of your physician’s practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment, employee review, and conducting or arranging of other business activities. For example, we will use a sign-in sheet at check-in where you will be asked to sign your name. We will also call you by name in the waiting room when your physician is ready to see you.

We may use or disclose your PHI in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include: as required by law, public health issues as required by law, communicable diseases, health oversight, abuse or neglect, food and drug administration requirements, legal proceedings, law enforcement, coroners, funeral directors, organ donation, research, criminal activity, military activity and national security, workers’ compensation, inmates, and other required uses and disclosures. Under the law, we must make disclosures to you upon your request. Under the law, we must also disclose your PHI information when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements under Section 164.500.

USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT REQUIRE YOUR AUTHORIZATION:

Other Permitted and Required Uses and Disclosures will be made only with your consent, authorization or opportunity to object unless required by law. Without your authorization, we are expressly prohibited to use or disclose your PHI for marketing purposes. We may not sell your PHI without your authorization. We may not use or disclose most psychotherapy notes contained in your PHI. We will not use or disclose any of your PHI that contains genetic information that will be used for underwriting purposes.

BRIAN D. BARNETT, M.D. • LOWELL T. KU, M.D. • DARA L. HAVEMANN, M.D. • SARA MUGOWSKI, M.D.
TIFFANNY JONES, M.D. • RINKU MEHTA, M.D.

You may revoke the authorization at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the physician’s practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

YOUR RIGHTS:

The following are statements of your rights with respect to your PHI:

You have the right to inspect or copy your PHI (fees may apply) – Pursuant to your written request, you have the right to inspect or copy your PHI whether in paper or electronic format. Under federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records: Psychotherapy notes, information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or used in, a civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding, PHI restricted by law, information that is related to medical research in which you have agreed to participate, information whose disclosure may result in harm or injury to you or to another person, or information that was obtained under a promise of confidentiality.

You have the right to request a restriction of your PHI – This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of your PHI not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply. Your physician is not required to agree to your requested restriction except if you request that the physician not disclose PHI to your health plan with respect to healthcare for which you have paid in full out of pocket.

You have the right to request to receive confidential communications – You have the right to request confidential communications from us by alternative means or at an alternative location.

You have the right to request an amendment of your PHI – If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures – You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures, paper or electronic, except for disclosures: pursuant to an authorization, for purposes of treatment, payment, healthcare operations, required by law, that occurred prior to April 14, 2003, or six year prior to the date of the request.

You have the right to receive notice of a breach – We will notify you if your unsecured PHI has been breached.

You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and we will notify you of such changes on the following appointment. We will also make available copies of our new notice if you wish to obtain one.

COMPLAINTS

You may file a complaint to us or to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us. You may file a complaint with us by notifying our Privacy Officer of your complaint. Any complaint you file will be used strictly to improve our operating procedures, and in doing so, you will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

I have reviewed the above Notice of Privacy Practice, which explains how my medical information will be used and disclosed. By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above and understand my rights to privacy of Protected Health Information.

PATIENT CONSENT FOR USE OF EMAIL COMMUNICATIONS

To better serve our patients, this office has established an email address for some forms of communication. For routine matters that do not require immediate response, please feel free to contact us at (214) 297-0020. Please remember however, that this form of communication is not appropriate for use in an emergency. The turnaround time for routine patient communications is 24-48 business hours. Please, be advised that the service provider may delay message delivery. Should you require urgent or immediate attention, this medium is not appropriate.

When sending email, please put the subject of your message in the subject line so we can process it more efficiently. Also, be sure to put your name, patient ID number, if known, and return telephone number in the body of the message. We also ask that you acknowledge receipt of emails coming from this office by using the auto reply feature.

Communications relating to diagnosis and treatment will be filed in your medical record.

Dallas IVF is dedicated to keeping your medical record information confidential. Despite our best efforts, due to the nature of email, third parties may have access to messages. When communicating from work, you should be aware that some companies consider email corporate property and your messages may be monitored. Even when emailing from home, you may feel that access to your email is not well controlled, so you should take that into consideration. In addition, you should be aware that, although addressed to me, my staff and/or colleagues would have access to this information.

I understand that Dallas IVF will not be responsible for information loss or delay or breaches in confidentiality that are due to technical factors beyond this office’s control. I understand and agree to the above email policy.

By signing below, you are agreeing that we may send medical and financial related correspondence to you via email, and that we may respond to your emails to us via email.
